In Review

The Cubs must have a game today. Our numbers are down as the Hohokams are busy making sure that things go well at the ballpark. Sally Downey gets things started with the song, Jerry Paulus leads the pledge, and Jared Cox gives the prayer.

Tom generates some humor and funds for the club by giving the sunshine report. Sally Harrison introduces Sandy Goldstein, who is a physical therapist. Sandy begins by showing us 5 pictures of questionable working conditions. In one of the pictures we think that Jon Scott is the one who is in the slide. Workplace disability affects the employee, the employer as well as the economy. Companies have been focusing more on safety in the work place, so over the past few years there has been less incidence of injury, but when people are claiming disability due to an injury the duration is longer and the cost of the medical services is more.

He asks the question, the same injury cause different results in peoples lives? Companies would do well to help people by making sure that they can when needed provide some light duty or some type of work that would allow an employee to return to work, performing a job that would meet the Doctor's requirement to return to the workforce.

Sandy finishes the discussion with an interesting cartoon. A gentleman walks into a pharmacy and ask the Pharmacist if he can give him something that will help him feel better, but not quite good enough to go back to work!

Down Memory Lane

FIVE YEARS AGO -- 2002

Pat Gilbert has Roger Halvorson tell us about the Mesa Community Action Network. They help get men back on their feet with a job and a place to stay while they learn money and time management skills. Saguaro Sam tries his hand at forecasting current events for the future. First, the Arts Center will be over budget, will not break even and loose the local arts groups. Second, the city will loose out on a stadium at Riverview. Lastly, the trolley car system will be over budget, in the red and mostly empty. (Guess we will have to wait a couple more years to see.)

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO -- 1992

Father and Daughters and Sons Day at the ball park. Nice lunch and a great afternoon with wonderful company.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO -- 1977

Wayne Pomeroy speaks about the new Centennial Center. He asks that all the service clubs help furnish some of the extras that will improve the center. Wayne says that this will become the center of civic life in Mesa. Local clubs and groups will be able to have facilities for meetings and conventions. Don Strauch and Wayne Brown field questions about city government and the upcoming utility rate hikes.

FIFTY YEARS AGO -- 1957

We hear from Mr. Clayton Lorenz from the Samuel Gompers Memorial Rehabilitation Center in Phoenix and the Maricopa County Society for Crippled Children and Adults. Help support their work by supporting the Easter Seal program!

SIXTY YEARS AGO -- 1947

Horace Griffen submitted his resignation from our club to become a member of the Phoenix 100. The Republic has promoted him to a job in Phoenix. Virgil Crismon opens a new florist shop, the full service florist in Mesa

SEVENTY FIVE YEARS AGO -- 1932

Four hundred fifty Rotarians and their wives from around the state are in Mesa for their annual District Conference. All of the local business houses are displaying Rotary flags and banners. Quite a showing for our local club. Frank Gurley is elected the next president of the Mesa Rotary club.

Saguaro Sam

Dil Brinton Jr.

Yet another week away from home. Making up is 'ok' but as Dorothy says, "There is no place like home." I can hardly wait until next week when ballgames are over and Rotary is the theme for Wednesday.

Susan Carland must have a secret admirer. At one of the recent ball games, her name kept coming up in lights on the new scoreboard. Nothing like your clients and friends seeing that you have 'made it' on the big screen.

A tip of the ol' sombrero to all of our members who are Ho Ho Kams. They are: George Bliss, Dil and Robert Brinton, Charlie Deaton, Jerry Deland, John Dennett, Pat Gilbert, Milt Laffin, Bud Page, Tom Rhodes, Les Riell, Jay Roundy, Brian Vivian, Marty Whalen and Dave Wier. Also are about a dozen of our former members that are also Ho Ho Kams. All of them certainly demonstrate 'Service Above Self'.

DISTRICT LEADERSHIP TRAINING

This weekend is a District Leadership training meeting for all of next year's presidents, vice presidents and club board members. It will be held at Scottsdale Community College. They are supposed to learn how to manage a group such as us. Best wishes to them.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Mark your calendar for the District Conference. It will be in Chandler at the San Marcos on June 8 to June 10. The district should soon be sending everyone a registration packet which includes the program, events and costs.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Just a week after our District Conference, Rotary International will be having their International convention in Salt Lake City. This is close enough that anyone who wants to attend can do so with a minimum of cost. The dates are June 17 to 20. If you register BY March 31, it is $315. Starting April 1 and thereafter the cost is $355. You can register via internet by visiting the RI web site at www.rotary.org. Speakers include the father of Bill Gates, Steven Covey, Donnie Osmond and many others.
